

Tsawe-Munga Chidongo (PhD)

PhD in Theology; Birmingham University UK , MA in Religions Politics and International Relations; University of Wales Lampeter UK, BA in Theology KeMU Kenya, Diploma in Theology and Development; St. Pauls University Kenya.

Currently;

Lectures at Pwani University; African Indigenous Religion, Contemporary Theologies, Religion and Society.

Areas of interest in research

- Inter-religious dialogue; exploring society factors that necessitate religions to employ cooperation and dialogue in order play the role of building community cohesion; engaging in issues of peace and reconciliation, seeking for justice in the appropriate way for community well-being.
- Studying the Effects of globalisation in Africa and exploring the religious means of responding to the phenomenon.

●Liberation Theology; in the African context (interest in African politics, economy and governance).

Publications:

Books

1. Chidongo, T. M. (2012). Exploring Dialogue;Reflections on Christianity's Mission and African Indigenous Religion. Germany: Lambert Publishers ISBN 978-3-8454-3937

Articles Published in Peer Reviewed Academic Journals

2. Chidongo, T. M. (2012). Theology, innovation and Society: Towards developing Dialogical Theology for African society. In Research and Innovation for Sustainable Development in Africa: Kabarak University International Conference proceedings to be published January 2013.
3. Chidongo, T. M. (2012). Education Reform for Innovations: Can religious encounter in Kenyan schools precipitate educational reforms? In Msingi Journal Kenyatta University.

Conference Papers:

Who Do African Indigenous Religionists say that I am? And who do 'you' African Christians say that I am? An exploration of a Christ that can engage Christians into Dialogue with African Indigenous Adherents. Queens Foundation Birmingham 2008 October

What can religion offer in the current trend of heightened ethnic warfare around the world? (A case study on ethnic clashes in Kenya among the Orma and Pokomo peoples living in the Tana River district). University of Wales Lampeter 2005 August

Inculturation of Christianity: A case of the Midzi-Chenda Community of Coastal Kenya
University of Wales Lampeter 2004 October

Theology, innovation and Society: Towards developing Dialogical Theology for African society. Kabarak University 2012 October

God, Mediation in the African Eyes'. Vision College of Theology and Business Studies UK
Birmingham 2007 November

Membership:

Tony Blair Faith Foundation

African Studies Association

Black Theology Forum Queens Foundation

Methodist Church in Kenya

Malindi District Cultural Association MADCA

Email: lchidongo@yahoo.com